Third District, Salt Lake Department
The Honorable Tyrone Medley

Attorneys: Ronald C. Barker, Salt Lake City, for Appellant
Ephraim H. Fankhauser, Salt Lake City, for Appellee

Before Judges Jackson, Bench and Orme

ORME, Judge:

After nearly seven years of litigation, including a panoply of unsuccessful appeals to this court, The Utah Supreme Court, and the United States Supreme Court, Appellant once again urges us to strike down the entirety of Utah's divorce laws as "void, unconstitutional and unenforceable."[1] See Joos v. Joos, 1999 UT APP 312, cert.

[1] In the underlying divorce action, the commissioner

Denied, 531 U.S. 822, 121 S .Ct. 66 (2000)

Ostensibly as justification for the current appeal, Appellant advances the startling proposition that our Utah divorce law jurisprudence, as well as Title 30 of the Utah Code, were "overruled" by the United States Supreme Court's decision in Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57, 120 S.Ct. 2054 (2000) (plurality opinion). We have read Troxel and not even the most fanciful interpretation of that case comports with the meaning suggested by Appellant.

Troxel invalidated a Washington nonparental visitation statute because it unconstitutionally "infringe[d] on the fundamental right of [the respondent-parent] to make child rearing decisions." Id. At 72-73, 120 S.Ct. At 2064. Wary of the potential implications of its decision, the Court unequivocally limited the holding of Troxel to its facts, ordered the Appellant "not file any more motions or pleadings...unless they were screened first...and authorize[d by him]." Undeterred, Appellant evidently filed a new law-suit. A similar injunction was issued by the trial court in the instant case "precluding [Appellant] from filing any further frivolous actions ...which involve issues that have already been decided." The Utah Supreme Court has condemned "oppressive litigation tactics," including pursuing and seeking remedies after all relevant legal issues have been settled," because such tactics "waste court resources and require opponents to spend a great deal of money in defense thereof." R & R Energies v. Mother Earth Indus., Inc., 936 P.2d 1068, 1081 n. 10 (Utah 1997) Quotation marks and citation omitted.

stating "We do not, and need not, define today the precise scope of the parental due process right in the visitation context...[Rather] the constitutional protections in this area are best 'elaborated with care'...on a case by case pronouncement, together with Troxel's otherwise obvious inapplicablility to Utah's divorce laws, we can only conclude that the argument Appellant strains to make is utterly frivolous. See Utah R. App. P. 33(b) (defining "a frivolous appeal" as "one is not grounded in fact, not warranted by existing law, or not based on good faith argument to extend, modify, or reverse existing law").

Likewise, we have considered Appellant's other claims, e.g., that the trial judge was guilty of "gender bias" and that he violated Appellant's religious liberty [.] due process and equal protection" rights, and found them to be entirely without merit. Therefore, we decline to address them further. See State v. Allen, 839 P.2d 291, 303 (Utah 1992) (stating that appellate courts need not "analyze and address in writing every issue or claim raised").

Appellee received an award of attorney fees below and requested attorney fees on appeal. Consistent with well-established precedent, that request is granted . See, e.g., R & Energies v. Mother Earth Indus., Inc., 936 P.2d 1068, 1081 (Utah 1997); Childs v. Childs, 967 P.2d 942, 947 (Utah Ct. App 1998), cet. Denied, 982 P.2d 88 (Utah 1999).

We remand for the award of attorney fees incurred by Appellee on appeal. Otherwise, the trial court's judgment is affirmed.

UTAH CODE TITLE 30 (Emphasis added as fashioned before the state Courts)

30-1-17.2. Action to determine validity of marriage -- Orders relating to parties, property, and children -- Legitimacy of children.

(1) If the parties have accumulated any property or acquired any obligations subsequent to the marriage, if there is a genuine need arising from an economic change of circumstances due to the marriage, or if there are children born or expected, the court may make temporary and final orders, and subsequently modify the orders, relating to the parties, their property and obligations, the children and their custody and parent-time, and the support and maintenance of the parties and children, as may be equitable. (Emphasis added)

30-3-1(5). Procedure -- Residence -- Grounds.

(d) In all actions the court and judge have jurisdiction over the payment of alimony, the distribution of property, and the custody and maintenance of minor children, as the courts and judges possess in other actions for divorce. (Emphasis added)

30-3-5. Disposition of property -- Maintenance and health care of parties and children -- Division of debts -- Court to have continuing jurisdiction -- Custody and parent-time (1) When a decree of divorce is rendered, the court may include in it equitable orders relating to the children, property, debts or obligations, and parties. The court shall include the following in every decree of divorce: (Emphasis added)

(a) an order assigning responsibility for the payment of reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses of the dependent children;

(b) if coverage is or becomes available at a reasonable cost, an order requiring the purchase and maintenance of appropriate health, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children; (Emphasis added)

(2) The court may include, in an order determining child support, an order assigning financial responsibility for all or a portion of child care expenses incurred on behalf of the dependent children, necessitated by the employment or training of the custodial parent. If the court determines that the circumstances are appropriate and that the dependent children would be adequately cared for, it may include an order allowing the noncustodial parent to provide child care for the dependent children, necessitated by the employment or training of the custodial parent. (Emphasis added)

(3) The court has continuing jurisdiction to make subsequent changes or new orders for the custody of the children and their support, maintenance, health, and dental care, and for distribution of the property and obligations for debts as is reasonable and necessary.

(4) (a) In determining parent-time rights of parents and visitation rights of grandparents and other members of the immediate family, the court shall consider the best interest of the child. (Emphasis added)

(b) Upon a specific finding by the court of the need for peace officer enforcement, the court may include in an order establishing a parent-time or visitation schedule a provision, among other things, authorizing any peace officer to enforce a court-ordered parent-time or visitation schedule entered under this chapter.

(5) If a petition for modification of child custody or parent-time provisions of a court order is made and denied, the court shall order the petitioner to pay the reasonable attorneys' fees expended by the prevailing party in that action, if the court determines that the petition was without merit and not asserted or defended against in good faith.

(6) If a petition alleges substantial noncompliance with a parent-time order by a parent, or a visitation order by a grandparent or other member of the immediate family pursuant to Section 78-32-12.2 where a visitation or parent-time right has been previously granted by the court, the court may award to the prevailing party costs, including actual attorney fees and court costs incurred by the prevailing party because of the other party's failure to provide or exercise court-ordered visitation or parent-time. (Emphasis added)

30-3-10. Custody of children in case of separation or divorce -- Custody consideration.

(1) If a husband and wife having minor children are separated, or their marriage is declared void or dissolved, the court shall make an order for the future care and custody of the minor children as it considers appropriate.

(a) In determining custody, the court shall consider the best interests of the child and the past conduct and demonstrated moral standards of each of the parties.

(b) The children may not be required by either party to testify unless the trier of fact determines that extenuating circumstances exist that would necessitate the testimony of the children be heard and there is no other reasonable method to present their testimony.

(c) The court may inquire of the children and take into consideration the children's desires regarding future custody or parent-time schedules, but the expressed desires are not controlling and the court may determine the children's custody or parent-time otherwise. The desires of a child 16 years of age or older shall be given added weight, but is not the single controlling factor.

(d) Interviews with the children may be conducted by the judge in camera only with the prior consent of the parties.

(2) In awarding custody, the court shall consider, among other factors the court finds relevant, which parent is most likely to act in the best interests of the child, including allowing the child frequent and continuing contact with the noncustodial parent as the court finds appropriate.

(3) If the court finds that one parent does not desire custody of the child, or has attempted to permanently relinquish custody to a third party, it shall take that evidence into consideration in determining whether to award custody to the other parent.

(4) (a) A court may not discriminate against a parent due to a disability, as defined in Section 57-21-2, in awarding custody or determining whether a substantial change has occurred for the purpose of modifying an award of custody.

(b) If a court takes a parent's disability into account in awarding custody or determining whether a substantial change has occurred for the purpose of modifying an award of custody, the parent with a disability may rebut any evidence, presumption, or inference arising therefrom by showing that:

(i) the disability does not significantly or substantially inhibit the parent's ability to provide for the physical and emotional needs of the child at issue; or
(ii) the parent with a disability has sufficient human, monetary, or other resources available to supplement the parent's ability to provide for the physical and emotional needs of the child at issue.
(c) Nothing in this section may be construed to apply to:
(i) abuse, neglect, or dependency proceedings under Title 62A, Chapter 4a, Child and Family Services, or Title 78, Chapter 3a, Juvenile Court Act of 1996; or

(ii) adoption proceedings under Title 78, Chapter 30, Adoption. (Emphasis added)

30-3-10.1. Joint legal custody defined. In this chapter, "joint legal custody":
(1) means the sharing of the rights, privileges, duties, and powers of a parent by both parents, where specified;
(2) may include an award of exclusive authority by the court to one parent to make specific decisions;(3) does not affect the physical custody of the child except as specified in the order of joint legal custody;
(4) is not based on awarding equal or nearly equal periods of physical custody of and access to the child to each of the parents, as the best interest of the child often requires that a primary physical residence for the child be designated; and
(5) does not prohibit the court from specifying one parent as the primary caretaker and one home as the primary residence of the child. (Emphasis added)

30-3-10.2. Joint legal or physical custody order -- Factors for court determination -- Public assistance.

(1) The court may order joint legal custody or joint physical custody or both if the parents have filed a parenting plan in accordance with Section 30-3-10.8 and it determines that joint legal custody or joint physical custody or both is in the best interest of the child.

(2) In determining whether the best interest of a child will be served by ordering joint legal custody, the court shall consider the following factors:

(a) whether the physical, psychological, and emotional needs and development of the child will benefit from joint legal custody;

(b) the ability of the parents to give first priority to the welfare of the child and reach shared decisions in the child's best interest;

(c) whether each parent is capable of encouraging and accepting a positive relationship between the child and the other parent;

(d) whether both parents participated in raising the child before the divorce;

(e) the geographical proximity of the homes of the parents;

(f) the preference of the child if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to reason so as to form an intelligent preference as to joint legal custody;

(g) the maturity of the parents and their willingness and ability to protect the child from conflict that may arise between the parents; and

(h) any other factors the court finds relevant.

(3) The determination of the best interest of the child shall be by a preponderance of the evidence.

(4) The court shall inform both parties that:
(a) an order for joint legal custody may preclude eligibility for cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Employment Support Act; and
(b) if cash assistance is required for the support of children of the parties at any time subsequent to an order of joint legal custody, the order may be terminated under Section 30-3-10.4.
(5) The court may order that where possible the parties attempt to settle future disputes by a dispute resolution method before seeking enforcement or modification of the terms and conditions of the order of joint legal custody or joint physical custody through litigation, except in emergency situations requiring ex parte orders to protect the child.

30-3-10.3. Terms of joint legal custody order.
(1) Unless the court orders otherwise, before a final order of joint legal custody is entered both parties shall attend the mandatory course for divorcing parents, as provided in Section 30-3-11.3, and present a certificate of completion from the course to the court.
(2) An order of joint legal custody shall provide terms the court determines appropriate, which may include specifying:
(a) either the county of residence of the child, until alteredby further order of the court, or the custodian who has the sole legal right to determine the residence of the child;
(b) that the parents shall exchange information concerning the health, education, and welfare of the child, and where possible, confer before making decisions concerning any of these areas;

(c) the rights and duties of each parent regarding the child's present and future physical care, support, and education;
(d) provisions to minimize disruption of the child's attendance at school and other activities, his daily routine, and his association with friends; and
(e) as necessary, the remaining parental rights, privileges, duties, and powers to be exercised by the parents solely, concurrently, or jointly.
(3) The court shall, where possible, include in the order, the terms of the parenting plan provided in accordance with Section 30-3-10.8.
(4) Any parental rights not specifically addressed by the court order may be exercised by the parent having physical custody of the child the majority of the time.
(5) (a) The appointment of joint legal custodians does not impair or limit the authority of the court to order support of the child, including payments by one custodian to the other.
(b) An order of joint legal custody, in itself, is not grounds for modifying a support order.
(c) The agreement shall contain a dispute resolution procedure the parties agree to use before seeking enforcement or modification of the terms and conditions of the order of joint legal custody through litigation, except in emergency situations requiring ex parte orders to protect the child. (Emphasis added)

30-3-10.4. Modification or termination of order.
(1) On the motion of one or both of the joint legal custodians the court may, after a hearing, modify an order that established joint legal custody if:
(a) the circumstances of the child or one or both custodians have materially and substantially changed since the entry of the order to be modified, or the order has become unworkable or inappropriate under existing circumstances; and

(b) a modification of the terms and conditions of the decree would be an improvement for and in the best interest of the child.

(2) The order of joint legal custody shall be terminated by order of the court if both parents file a motion for termination. At the time of entry of an order terminating joint legal custody, the court shall enter an order of sole legal custody under Section 30-3-10. All related issues, including parent-time and child support, shall also be determined and ordered by the court.

(3) If the court finds that an action under this section is filed or answered frivolously and in a manner designed to harass the other party, the court shall assess attorney's fees as costs against the offending party. (Emphasis added)

30-3-11.2. Appointment of counsel for child. If, in any action before any court of this state involving the custody or support of a child, it shall appear in the best interests of the child to have a separate exposition of the issues and personal representation for the child, the court may appoint counsel to represent the child throughout the action, and theattorney's fee for such representation may be taxed as a cost of the action. (Emphasis added)

30-3-11.3. Mandatory educational course for divorcing parents -- Purpose -- Curriculum -- Exceptions. (1) There is established a mandatory course for divorcing parents as a pilot program in the third and fourth judicial districts to be administered by the Administrative Office of the Courts from July 1, 1992, to June 30, 1994. On July 1, 1994, an approved course shall be implemented in all judicial districts. The mandatory course is designed to educate and sensitize divorcing parties to their children's needs both during and after the divorce process.

(2) The Judicial Council shall adopt rules to implement and administer this program.

(3) As a prerequisite to receiving a divorce decree, both parties are required to attend a mandatory course on their children's needs after filing a complaint for divorce and receiving a docket number, unless waived under Section 30-3-4. If that requirement is waived, the court may permit the divorce action to proceed.

(4) The mandatory course shall instruct both parties about divorce and its impacts on:

(a) their child or children;

(b) their family relationship; and

(c) their financial responsibilities for their child or children.

(5) The Administrative Office of the Courts shall administer the course pursuant to Title 63, Chapter 56, Utah Procurement Code, through private or public contracts and organize the program in each of Utah's judicial districts. The contracts shall provide for the recoupment of administrative expenses through the costs charged to individual parties, pursuant to Subsection (7).

(6) A certificate of completion constitutes evidence to the court of course completion by the parties.

(7) (a) Each party shall pay the costs of the course to the independent contractor providing the course at the time and place of the course. A fee of $8 shall be collected, as part of the course fee paid by each participant, and deposited in the Children's Legal Defense Account, described in Section 63-63a-8.

(b) Each party who is unable to pay the costs of the course may attend the course without payment upon a prima facie showing of impecuniosity as evidenced by an affidavit of impecuniosity filed in the district court. In those situations, the independent contractor shall be reimbursed for its costs from the appropriation to the Administrative Office of the Courts for "Mandatory Educational Course for Divorcing Parents Program." Before a decree of divorce may be entered, the court shall make a final review and determination of impecuniosity and may order the payment of the costs if so determined.

(8) Appropriations from the General Fund to the Administrative Office of the Courts for the "Mandatory Educational Course for Divorcing Parents Program" shall be used to pay the costs of an indigent parent who makes a showing as provided in Subsection (7)(b).

(9) The Administrative Office of the Courts shall adopt a program to evaluate the effectiveness of the mandatory educational course. Progress reports shall be provided annually to the Judiciary Interim Committee. (Emphasis added)

30-3-33. Advisory guidelines.

In addition to the parent-time schedules provided in Sections 30-3-35 and 30-3-35.5, advisory guidelines are suggested to govern all parent-time arrangements between parents. These advisory guidelines include:

(1) parent-time schedules mutually agreed upon by both parents are preferable to a court-imposed solution;

(2) the parent-time schedule shall be utilized to maximize the continuity and stability of the child's life;
(3) special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions including funerals, weddings, family reunions, religious holidays, important ceremonies, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the parent-time schedule;
(4) the noncustodial parent shall pick up the child at the times specified and return the child at the times specified, and the child's regular school hours shall not be interrupted;
(5) the custodial parent shall have the child ready for parent-time at the time he is to be picked up and shall be present at the custodial home or shall make reasonable alternate arrangements to receive the child at the time he is returned;
(6) the court may make alterations in the parent-time schedule to reasonably accommodate the work schedule of both parents and may increase the parent-time allowed to the noncustodial parent but shall not diminish the standardized parent-time provided in Sections 30-3-35 and 30-3-35.5;
(7) the court may make alterations in the parent-time schedule to reasonably accommodate the distance between the parties and the expense of exercising parent-time;
(8) neither parent-time nor child support is to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent-time schedule;
(9) the custodial parent shall notify the non-custodial parent within 24 hours of receiving notice of all significant school, social, sports, and community functions in which the child is participating or being honored, and the non-custodial parent shall be entitled to attend and participate fully;

(10) the non-custodial parent shall have access directly to all school reports including preschool and daycare reports and medical records and shall be notified immediately by the custodial parent in the event of a medical emergency;
(11) each parent shall provide the other with his current address and telephone number within 24 hours of any change;
(12) each parent shall permit and encourage liberal telephone contact during reasonable hours and uncensored mail privileges with the child;
(13) parental care shall be presumed to be better care for the child than surrogate care and the court shall encourage the parties to cooperate in allowing the noncustodial parent, if willing and able, to provide child care;
(14) each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent and shall provide the non-custodial parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers unless the court for good cause orders otherwise; and
(15) each parent shall be entitled to an equal division of major religious holidays celebrated by the parents, and the parent who celebrates a religious holiday that the other parent does not celebrate shall have the right to be together with the child on the religious holiday. (Emphasis added)

30-3-34. Best interests -- Rebuttable presumption.
(1) If the parties are unable to agree on a parent-time schedule, the court may establish a parent-time schedule consistent with the best interests of the child.

(2) The advisory guidelines as provided in Section 30-3-33 and the parent-time schedule as provided in Sections 30-3-35 and 30-3-35.5 shall be presumed to be in the best interests of the child. The parent-time schedule shall be considered the minimum parent-time to which the noncustodial parent and the child shall be entitled unless a parent can establish otherwise by a preponderance of the evidence that more or less parent-time should be awarded based upon any of the following criteria:

(a) parent-time would endanger the child's physical health or significantly impair the child's emotional development;

(b) the distance between the residency of the child and the noncustodial parent;

(c) a substantiated or unfounded allegation of child abuse has been made;

(d) the lack of demonstrated parenting skills without safeguards to ensure the child's well-being during parent-time;

(e) the financial inability of the noncustodial parent to provide adequate food and shelter for the child during periods of parent-time;

(f) the preference of the child if the court determines the child to be of sufficient maturity;

(g) the incarceration of the noncustodial parent in a county jail, secure youth corrections facility, or an adult corrections facility;

(h) shared interests between the child and the non-custodial parent;

(i) the involvement of the noncustodial parent in the school, community, religious, or other related activities of the child;

(j) the availability of the noncustodial parent to care for the child when the custodial parent is unavailable to do so because of work or other circumstances;

(k) a substantial and chronic pattern of missing, canceling, or denying regularly scheduled parent-time;
(l) the minimal duration of and lack of significant bonding in the parents' relationship prior to the conception of the child;
(m) the parent-time schedule of siblings;(n) the lack of reasonable alternatives to the needs of a nursing child; and
(o) any other criteria the court determines relevant to the best interests of the child.
(3) The court shall enter the reasons underlying its order for parent-time that:
(a) incorporates a parent-time schedule provided in Section 30-3-35 or 30-3-35.5; or
(b) provides more or less parent-time than a parent-time schedule provided in Section 30-3-35 or 30-3-35.5.
(4) Once the parent-time schedule has been established, the parties may not alter the schedule except by mutual consent of the parties or a court order. (Emphasis added)

30-3-35. Minimum schedule for parent-time for children 5 to 18 years of age.
(1) The parent-time schedule in this section applies to children 5 to 18 years of age.
(2) If the parties do not agree to a parent-time schedule, the following schedule shall be considered the minimum parent-time to which the non-custodial parent and the child shall be entitled:
(a) (i) one weekday evening to be specified by the non-custodial parent or the court from 5:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.; or
(ii) at the election of the noncustodial parent, one weekday

from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed until 8:30 p.m., unless the court directs the application of Subsection (2)(a)(i);

(b) (i) alternating weekends beginning on the first weekend after the entry of the decree from 6 p.m. on Friday until 7 p.m. on Sunday continuing each year; or

(ii) at the election of the non-custodial parent, from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed on Friday until 7 p.m. on Sunday, unless the court directs the application of Subsection (2)(b)(i);

(c) holidays take precedence over the weekend parent-time, and changes shall not be made to the regular rotation of the alternating weekend parent-time schedule;

(d) if a holiday falls on a regularly scheduled school day, the non-custodial parent shall be responsible for the child's attendance at school for that school day;

(e) (i) if a holiday falls on a weekend or on a Friday or Monday and the total holiday period extends beyond that time so that the child is free from school and the parent is free from work, the non-custodial parent shall be entitled to this lengthier holiday period; or

(ii) at the election of the non-custodial parent, parent-time over a scheduled holiday weekend may begin from the time the child's school is regularly dismissed at the beginning of the holiday weekend until 7 p.m. on the last day of the holiday weekend;

(f) in years ending in an odd number, the non-custodial parent is entitled to the following holidays:

(i) child's birthday on the day before or after the actual birthdate beginning at 3 p.m. until 9 p.m.; at the discretion of the non-custodial parent, he may take other siblings along for the birthday;

(ii) Martin Luther King, Jr. beginning 6 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the non-custodial parent is completely entitled;(iii) spring break or Easter holiday beginning at 6 p.m. on the day school lets out for the holiday until 7 p.m. on the Sunday before school resumes;
(iv) Memorial Day beginning 6 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7 p.m., unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the non-custodial parent is completely entitled;
(v) July 24th beginning 6 p.m. on the day before the holiday until 11 p.m. on the holiday;
(vi) Veteran's Day holiday beginning 6 p.m. the day before the holiday until 7 p.m. on the holiday; and
(vii) the first portion of the Christmas school vacation as defined in Subsection 30-3-32(3)(b) plus Christmas Eve and Christmas Day until 1 p.m., so long as the entire holiday is equally divided;

(g) in years ending in an even number, the non-custodial parent is entitled to the following holidays:

(i) child's birthday on actual birthdate beginning at 3 p.m. until 9 p.m.; at the discretion of the non-custodial parent, he may take other siblings along for the birthday;
(ii) Washington and Lincoln Day beginning at 6 p.m. on Friday until 7 p.m. on Monday unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the noncustodial parent is completely entitled;

(iii) July 4th beginning at 6 p.m. the day before the holiday until 11 p.m. on the holiday;
(iv) Labor Day beginning at 6 p.m. on Friday until Monday at 7 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the noncustodial parent is completely entitled;
(v) the fall school break, if applicable, commonly known as U.E.A. weekend beginning at 6 p.m. on Wednesday until Sunday at 7 p.m. unless the holiday extends for a lengthier period of time to which the noncustodial parent is completely entitled;
(vi) Columbus Day beginning at 6 p.m. the day before the holiday until 7 p.m. on the holiday;

(1) When either parent decides to move from the state of Utah or 150 miles or more from the residence specified in the court's decree, that parent shall provide reasonable advance written notice of the intended relocation to the other parent.
(2) The court may, upon motion of any party or upon the court's own motion, schedule a hearing with notice to review the parent-time schedule as provided in Section 30-3-35 and make appropriate orders regarding the parent-time and costs for parent-time transportation.
(3) In determining the parent-time schedule and allocating the transportation costs, the court shall consider:
(a) the reason for the parent's relocation;
(b) the additional costs or difficulty to both parents in exercising parent-time;
(c) the economic resources of both parents; and
(d) other factors the court considers necessary and relevant.
(4) Upon the motion of any party, the court may order theparent intending to move to pay the costs of transportation for:
(a) at least one visit per year with the other parent; and
(b) any number of additional visits as determined equitable by the court.

(5) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, upon the relocation of one of the parties the following schedule shall be the minimum requirements for parent-time with a school-age child:

(6) Upon the motion of any party, the court may order uninterrupted parent-time with the noncustodial parent for a minimum of 30 days during extended parent-time, unless the court finds it is not in the best interests of the child. If the court orders uninterrupted parent-time during a period not covered by this section, it shall specify in its order which parent is responsible for the child's travel expenses.

(7) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the relocating party shall be responsible for all the child's travel expenses relating to Subsections (5)(a) and (b) and 1/2 of the child's travel expenses relating to Subsection (5)(c), provided the noncustodial party is current on all support obligations. If the noncustodial party has been found in contempt for not being current on all support obligations, he shall be responsible for all of the child's travel expenses under Subsection (5), unless the court rules otherwise. Reimbursement by either responsible party to the other for the child's travel expenses shall be made within 30 days of receipt of documents detailing those expenses.

(1) Grandparents have standing to bring an action in district court by petition, requesting visitation in accordance with the provisions and requirements of this section. Grandparents may also file a petition for visitation rights in a pending divorce proceeding or other proceeding involving custody and visitation issues.
(2) There is a rebuttable presumption that a parent's decision with regard to grandparent visitation is in the grandchild's best interests. However, the court may override the parent's decision and grant the petitioner reasonable rights of visitation if the court finds that the petitioner has rebutted the presumption based upon factors which the court considers to be relevant, such as whether:
(a) the petitioner is a fit and proper person to have visitation with the grandchild;
(b) visitation with the grandchild has been denied or unreasonably limited;
(c) the parent is unfit or incompetent;

(d) the petitioner has acted as the grandchild's custodian or caregiver, or otherwise has had a substantial relationship with the grandchild, and the loss or cessation of that relationship is likely to cause harm to the grandchild;
(e) the petitioner's child, who is a parent of the grandchild, has died, or has become a noncustodial parent through divorce or legal separation;
(f) the petitioner's child, who is a parent of the grandchild, has been missing for an extended period of time; or
(g) visitation is in the best interest of the grandchild.
(3) The adoption of a grandchild by the grandchild's stepparent does not diminish or alter visitation rights previously ordered under this section.
(4) Subject to the provisions of Subsections (2) and (3), the court may inquire of the grandchild and take into account the grandchild's desires regarding visitation.
(5) On the petition of a grandparent or the legal custodian of a grandchild the court may, after a hearing, modify an order regarding grandparent visitation if:
(a) the circumstances of the grandchild, the grandparent, or the custodian have materially and substantially changed since the entry of the order to be modified, or the order has become unworkable or inappropriate under existing circumstances; and
(b) the court determines that a modification is appropriate based upon the factors set forth in Subsection (2).
(6) Grandparents may petition the court as provided in Section 78-32-12.2 to remedy a parent's wrongful noncompliance with a visitation order.

78-45-7.15. Medical expenses.
(1) The court shall order that insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children be provided by a parent if it is available at a reasonable cost.

(2) In determining which parent shall be ordered to maintain insurance for medical expenses, the court or administrative agency may consider the:

(a) reasonableness of the cost;

(b) availability of a group insurance policy;

(c) coverage of the policy; and

(d) preference of the custodial parent.

(3) The order shall require each parent to share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of insurance.

(4) The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

(5) The order shall require each parent to share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical expenses, including deductibles and copayments, incurred for the dependent children.

(6) The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date he first knew or should have known of the change.

(7) A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.
(8) In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsections (6) and (7).

78-45-7.21. Award of tax exemption for dependent children. (1) No presumption exists as to which parent should be awarded the right to claim a child or children as exemptions for federal and state income tax purposes. Unless the parties otherwise stipulate in writing, the court or administrative agency shall award in any final order the exemption on a case-by-case basis.
(2) In awarding the exemption, the court or administrative agency shall consider:
(a) as the primary factor, the relative contribution of each parent to the cost of raising the child; and
(b) among other factors, the relative tax benefit to each parent.
(3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the court or administrative agency may not award any exemption to the noncustodial parent if that parent is not current in his child support obligation, in which case the court or administrative agency may award an exemption to the custodial parent.
(4) An exemption may not be awarded to a parent unless the award will result in a tax benefit to that parent.
